I contacted the complainant by phone regarding someone throwing a liquid on his windshield. The complainant said that he was southbound on Woodland hills DR when he passed a white truck that was northbound. Someone inside the white truck threw a liquid onto his vehicle as they passed each other. The complainant said that he thought it was a fountain drink because it contained ice cubes.

The complainant said that he had washed the liquid from his vehicle before calling the police and he was unable to give a description of the vehicle or its occupants. I checked the area and did not locate a white truck. No further action will be taken.

I was dispatched to a keep the peace during a child exchange between parents in Woodland Hills. Children were exchanged between parents (father dropping off children) without incident.

Being that multiple keep the peace calls have been requested within the past week it was recommended for child exchange to happen at a mutual place such as a police station parking lot. This matter is civil and nothing criminal has occurred. There is no protective orders in place. Reporting party was also requested to not combine child exchanges with property collection due to the length of time this has been taking. This matter is also civil.

No Further Actions Taken
